Young people from Bradstow School took part in a performance of King Lear by the famous playwright William Shakespeare.

They performed at the Theatre Royal in Margate and were wonderful. Young people said it was good to be part of

Article 31
Every child has the right to relax, play and take part in a wide range of cultural and artistic activities.
Happy Birthday, UN Convention on the Rights of the Child:

The 20th of November is World Children’s Day.

30th

and this marks the Birthday of the convention of rights of the Child. All children have the right to be listened to, to be protected, to be healthy, to education and to be treated fairly.

Article 31. Every Child has the right to take part in a wide range of cultural activities.

Some Young people in Cedar House went to see Annie the Musical! They said it was great!
Article 29: Education must develop a child’s personality and talents to the full.

Governments must do all they can to make sure every child can enjoy their rights.

This year our Christmas show will be the greatest Showman!

Class 1 are making a giraffe for part of the set.

Contact Lois if you have a story for the Brasdtow Voice.